

Fall 10-28-1985

Maine Campus October 28 1985

Maine Campus Staff

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.library.umaine.edu/mainecampus>

Repository Citation

Staff, Maine Campus, "Maine Campus October 28 1985" (1985). Maine Campus Archives. 1753.
<https://digitalcommons.library.umaine.edu/mainecampus/1753>

This Other is brought to you for free and open access by DigitalCommons@UMaine. It has been accepted for inclusion in Maine Campus Archives by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@UMaine. For more information, please contact um.library.technical.services@maine.edu.

the daily

Maine Campus

vol. XCVII no. XXXVI

The University of Maine at Orono student newspaper since 1875

Monday, October 28, 1985

Violence breaks out at Shantytown again

by M.C. Davis
Staff Writer

Shantytown dwellers faced more incidents of violence during Homecoming weekend in the form of heckling, egg-throwing and bottle-rocket-launching.

The protesters also were active informing alumni and other visitors of their protest against United States corporations doing business in South Africa.

"I think the people who have stopped by have been informed," April Orcutt, a Shantytown resident, said Saturday.

On Friday night, three males reportedly threw eggs on the mall at about 10:30 p.m. as the protesters were gathered by the fire.

Protesters then faced hecklers and reported three incidents of bottle rockets being aimed at the site shortly after midnight, said Melinda Nelte.

Nelte said the first bottle rocket was launched from the library steps onto the mall. Three people were seen running from the scene.

The second incident occurred an hour later when protesters heard an explosion near one shanty located on the mall's eastern side. Furthermore, at about 2:30 a.m. a rocket landed near the feet of one of the protesters. Orcutt said the police were then notified.

"We didn't want to call the police sooner because we didn't want to cry wolf," she said. "But when the bottle rocket landed that close to us, we realized ed somebody was trying to tell us something. I don't know what they're trying to say. If they're not for us, are they for racism?"

The explosion of the last bottle rocket was similar in volume to an M-80, a powerful form of firecracker equal to a quarter of a stick of dynamite, Orcutt said.

There are no suspects concerning the reported incidents, campus police said.

Larry Bean, one of the three protesters who stayed on the mall Saturday afternoon, said a group of hecklers were shouting, "Nuke Shantytown."

"We asked them if they were racist, or if they were for black oppression in South Africa," said Bean. "They said they weren't. We talked for a while. And they walked away saying, 'Shantytown is great'."

Maine Peace Action Committee members, who are sponsoring the protest, had talked about possibly distributing leaflets to spectators at Alumni Field during the Homecoming football game Saturday. The leaflets were to outline the UMaine Foundation's stand on investing policies concerning the South African economy. The MPAC action, however, was canceled. The three who stayed at Shantytown Saturday answered questions from less than two dozen visitors.

Orcutt said that with only three people receiving guests, Shantytown looked empty and failed to attract many visitors.

Bananas struts his stuff at Saturday's football game. (Vecchio photo)

Homecoming queen crowned Saturday

by Jessica Lowell
Staff Writer

The 1985 homecoming queen was crowned Saturday, during UMO's 55th annual Homecoming Weekend.

Johanna Stevens, a senior elementary education major, was named queen in a ceremony before the football game at Alumni Field. "I didn't expect it at all," Stevens said. "I felt total surprise and excitement."

Matthew Stiker, president of Senior Skulls said the process for selecting the homecoming queen was a long one.

"This year, we received 17 applications. Those were looked over by all the Skulls," he said. "Ten candidates were interviewed by a selection committee and five finalists were chosen." The selection committee was composed of UMO President Arthur Johnson; his wife Emily, William Lucy, dean of student activities and organizations; Nancy Dysart, assistant director of alumni activities; Tom Babineau, chairman of the Homecoming Queen Committee and the presidents and vice presidents of Senior Skulls and All-Maine Women.

Stiker said the application requested information on the applicants' career aspirations, honors and scholastic achievements, extra curricular activities and special talents.

Applicants also had to include a brief essay on which of their qualities best represented the university.

The Alumni Student Service award was given to Matthew Stiker for distinguished service to the university and the Alumni Association.

The president's office presented the Steve Gould Memorial Award to the classified employees committee for outstanding service for its work on the annual scholarship fair.

Dysart said all members of the selection committee "were impressed with the qualities of the students. The essays were all extremely well written and articulate."

Stevens said academics were "a big part of the selection process." Among her academic achievements are a membership in Kappa Delta Pi,

(see QUEEN page 2)

UMO student to be on television program

by Dawn Daigle
Staff Writer

Wade Logan, campus chairman for Students Against Multiple Sclerosis, will appear in Good Morning America's opening Faces segment Tuesday, according to a press release from the National Multiple Sclerosis Society.

The segment, in which Logan and 149 other campus (chairmen) appear waving their school pennants and banners, is scheduled to appear at 7 a.m.

Logan said the program's camera crew filmed the 150 student leaders shouting, "From Miami, good morning America," in unison.

"The energy level of these people (SAMS campus chairmen) was incredible," he said. Logan said the segment was shot in Miami in September when he attended a leadership seminar sponsored by the National Multiple Sclerosis Society.

During the seminar, campus leaders from colleges across the nation received training to enable them to launch a project designed to increase public awareness of multiple sclerosis and raise money for research in the fight against the disease.

The National Multiple Sclerosis Society is the only national non-profit voluntary agency dedicated to MS research. The society is affiliated with the International Federation of MS Societies, which includes 30 countries working together to find a cause and a cure for the disease, from which more than two million people worldwide suffer.

Clifford Goldsmith, chairman of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society's board of directors founded Students against Multiple Sclerosis.

According to the release, Goldsmith believed young adults would want to help themselves fight a disease that affects people of their age group.

Multiple sclerosis, a major neurological disease, typically affects people between the ages of 18 and 34. Each week more than 200 new cases are diagnosed, the release said.

Queen

(continued from page 1)

honor fraternity, and being on the dean's list every semester.

She listed as extra curricular activities, memberships in Gamma Sigma Sigma, a service sorority, Bacchus; the Student Alumni Association and the Non-Alcoholic Social Programming Committee.

"I felt my leadership abilities, my involvement on campus, my academic honors represented the university.

"I'm not a glamorous person at all," she said. "I don't feel that I represent the university more than the others." Beginning this year, Dysart said, the duties of the homecoming queen and her court may be extended beyond Homecoming Weekend. Dysart said the president's office had felt "all these women should have the opportunity to represent the university, the student body." Three awards were also given at Saturday's game. Dysart said the Block M Alumni Activities Award was given to Agnes Ann Walsh, class of '41, for many years of service to the Portland Club of UMO.

The Alumni Student Service award was given to Matthew Stiker for distinguished service to the university and the Alumni Association.

The president's office presented the Steve Gould Memorial Award to the classified employees committee for outstanding service for its work on the annual scholarship fair.

Visitors offer views on protest

by M.C. Davis
Staff Writer

Random interviews on the mall Saturday afternoon indicated that visiting alumni and friends of UMO were unaware of the Shantytown protest before Homecoming.

Also, many said they knew little or nothing about the issue of divestiture.

One alumnus, who preferred to remain anonymous, said he was unaware that the UMaine trustees had divested their endowment portfolio from U.S. corporations doing business in South Africa, or that the foundation was a separate institution that is beyond control of the BOT.

Concerning the shanties on the mall during Homecoming weekend, he said, "They haven't really turned me off to the issue. I don't think the university should invest in South Africa. This is a peaceful way to protest the action."

"You have to admit that the timing was good," he said. "I heard somebody else refer to the place as a shanty. My first thought was, it's a good idea, but it probably won't do any good."

Another alumnus said, "I think that as long as the people in the United States are well-fed, they don't give a damn what happens in other countries."

Other visitors asked whether there was a chance of a communist takeover if the United States were to withdraw financial support in South Africa.

One man at the mall said, "I don't know a whole lot about the issue. But if (the protesters) are right, more power to them. But if they're wrong, to hell with them."

BLOOM COUNTY

by Berke Breathed

BLOOM COUNTY

by Berke Breathed

Doonesbury

BY GARRY TRUDEAU

Doonesbury

BY GARRY TRUDEAU

Evergreen Apartments

New, one bedroom apartments near campus, fully furnished to accommodate two people, on-site laundry and full basement for private storage. Located in a forest setting.

reserve your Evergreen Apt. for next semester

Call: P.I. Realty Management
942-4815

Danspace

your community Arts Center

new session October 28
classes for adults

Jazz Modern Dance Aerobics
22 Main St., Old Town 827-8201

Classifieds

$10 to $360 weekly/up mailing circulars! No quotas! Sincerely interested rush self addressed stamped envelope: Success, P.O. Box 470 CEG, Woodstock, IL 60098.

Blue Cross Insurance cards are here. Please pick up at Cutler Health Ctr., Rm. 171, 8-12 and 1-1 weekdays.

FOR SALE: COMMANDER DIETGEN Instrument Case with Nine Instruments In Excellent Condition. Black Leather Case. Tel. 866-3517.

LOST: Calico/tiger cat with flea collar lost in Old Town. Call 827-7952 or 866-5655.

Classifieds are $1.50 for the first twenty words and 10 cents for each additional word per day.

W

U.S.

BELLE CHA
ficials boarded chored in the M
day, seeking to d jumped ship tw
United States.
leave the ship, o
the sailor was n Koniev by Am
though witness to stay.

White House
Robert McFarlan
ment wants to i neutral site and to do. McFarlan has the right to

Two
f

DETROIT
Chrysler Cor
new contrac walkout by 7
that cost the $15 million
Workers offic

Before the local union le ment as a pers
Auto Workers
Union loca
Saturday and threeyear pac workers pay a to their count
Co. and Gen
Local union

War
of to

ROME (AP)
cy said Sunday
investigating th
ship Achille La warrant for the
on the basis of
with the hijack
SA said a wa
Mohammed A issued after pro
ed a tape of A hijackers, was s more than 500
the leader of a Liberation Org
hijackers on a
in Sicily by Ar

Italy released
voked sharp cr
States and was
Premier Bettin
Craxi has said
tion determined
legal grounds t

During the tourist Leon K
by the hijacker overboard.

On Saturday,
Sicily issued an rant for Abba murder, kidnab
transportation

World/U.S. News

U.S. officials look for defected Soviet sailor

BELLE CHASSE, La. (AP) - U.S. officials boarded a Soviet freighter anchored in the Mississippi River on Sunday, seeking to determine if a sailor who jumped ship twice wants to stay in the United States. After each attempt to leave the ship, on Thursday and Friday, the sailor was returned to the Marshal Koniev by American authorities even though witnesses said he was pleading to stay.

White House national security advisor Robert McFarlane said the State Department wants to interview the sailor at a neutral site and find out what he wants to do. McFarlane said the United States has the right to interview the sailor. As two Coast Guard crew boats circled the grain freighter in choppy waters about 75 miles from the Gulf of Mexico, State Department spokesman Peter Martinez in Washington said the agency was still trying to find out what the sailor wanted to do.

Mike Flad, a U.S. agent for the Soviet vessel, said he saw the sailor Friday morning about 16 hours after he had first jumped. The man appeared to be in his 20s, said Flad, an employee of the Universal Shipping Agency. Three people, identified as Border Patrol and Customs officials by a Customs worker who would not give his name, boarded the ship Sunday afternoon. Flad said he believed at least one State Department representative was aboard Sunday.

Coast Guard boats were keeping Mississippi River traffic away from the freighter, Flad said. The freighter and its 43-member crew were scheduled to go to Reserve, La., to pick up grain. Flad said he didn't know when it would be able to leave Belle Chasse. The unidentified sailor first dove off the ship near Belle Chasse, a small town in Plaquemines Parish downriver from New Orleans, on Friday. Flad said he swam 80-100 yards to shore. Border Patrol agents returned him to the vessel.

Thomas Richard, who works for Universal Shipping Agents, said he received a call from the Boarder Patrol on Thursday night saying that a sailor had jumped ship and come ashore. Richard said he was ordered to put the sailor back on the ship. The seaman jumped from the boat that was ferrying him back to the Soviet freighter, but was recaptured. He was returned again after he jumped a second time Friday, but Immigration Service officials in New Orleans contracted their headquarters in Washington, said David H. Lambert, district director of the Immigration and Naturalization Service. Lambert said Border Patrol agents could not communicate with the man and thought he was a stowaway.

Twelve-day strike ends for Chrysler workers

DETROIT (AP) - Autoworkers at Chrysler Corp. voted to approve a new contract, ending a 12-day walkout by 70,000 union members that cost the company an estimated $15 million a day, United Auto Workers officials said Sunday.

Before the vote was announced, local union leaders hailed the agreement as a personal victory for United Auto Workers President Owen Bieber.

Union locals nationwide voted Saturday and early Sunday on the threeyear pact, which gives Chrysler workers pay and benefits comparable to their counterparts at Ford Motor Co. and General Motors Corp.

Local union leaders said there had been only token opposition to the contract among rank-and-file.

Coyne said the contract, which gives the 70,000 Chrysler workers immediate cash bonuses of $2,120 each for granting concessions when the automaker neared bankruptcy, is a personal victory for Bieber.

Bieber, 55, became UAW president 2 and a half years ago, succeeding Douglas Fraser. He is up for reelection in June.

Some maintenance employees and workers at plants with third shifts were expected back on the job Sunday night, pending ratification of the contract, Chrysler spokeswoman Anne Lalas said Sunday.

Warrant issued for arrest of top PLO official Abbas

ROME (AP) - An Italian news agency said Sunday that a Sicilian prosecutor investigating the hijacking of the cruise ship Achille Lauro apparently issued a warrant for the arrest of a PLO official on the basis of his taped conversations with the hijackers. The news agency ANSA said a warrant for the arrest of Mohammed Abbas apparently was issued after prosecutors in Sicily reviewed a tape of Abbas talking to the four hijackers, was seized the ship Oct. 7 with more than 500 people on board. Abbas, the leader of a faction of the Palestine Liberation Organization, was with the hijackers on a jet that was forced down in Sicily by American warplanes.

Italy released him, an action that provoked sharp criticism from the United States and was a factor in the fall of Premier Bettino Craxi's government. Craxi has said Italian judicial authorization determined there were insufficient legal grounds to hold Abbas.

During the hijacking, American tourist Leon Klinghoffer, 69, was slain by the hijackers and his body thrown overboard.

On Saturday, prosecutors in Siracusa, Sicily issued an international arrest warrant for Abbas charging him with murder, kidnapping, hijacking and transportation and possession of arms and explosives, officials said. The prosecutors, or magistrates, gave no explanation for their action, but prosecutors in Italy have considerable autonomy in pursuing investigations.

Abbas' whereabouts are unknown to Italian authorities.

The United States has said Abbas masterminded the hijacking. Italian officials have said Abbas played a role in ending the crisis and also noted that he carried an Iraqi diplomatic passport, which granted him diplomatic immunity.

ZOOLOGY

Junior English Proficiency Exam

Wednesday, Oct. 30
7:00 PM

102 Murray Hall

Required for Graduation!

All Zoology

(and Biology and Med. Tech. Majors A&S)

Juniors

must take this exam!

Investigation uncovers ticket sales scandal

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) - Some former Kentucky basketball players say they did a thriving business selling complimentary tickets at inflated prices to boosters and received cash and other improper gifts from zealous supporters, the Lexington Herald-Leader reported.

A copyright story in Sunday's editions told of players getting up to $1,000 each for the tickets and finding $50 to $100 in their palms after shaking hands with supporters. Clothing, car tires and free meals also came their way from a small corps of boosters over the past 13 years, the former players said. The newspaper said the story was based on interviews with more than 200 people in the last seven months.

Thirty-three players were interviewed, 31 of whom said they knew of improper activities while they played at Kentucky. Twenty-six players told the Herald-Leader they received money, gifts or meals. Coach Joe B. Hall, who directed the Kentucky program for 13 years until resigning in March, told the paper he was unaware of improprieties.

Jay Shidler, a guard who played from 1976-80, was quoted as saying he made $8,400 by selling his complimentary season tickets to Cecil Dunn, who is Hall's lawyer. Dunn declined to answer reporters' questions.

Your ticket to the top ...

A Sugarloaf/USA
College Student Season Pass

$225.00 if purchased before October 31, 1985

Buy Now!!

tickets available daily at the information booth at the Memorial Union.

or, call your campus reps
Chantel Legare at 866-4710
Jo Sorenson at 866-3845

Some mountains have all the fun.

Sugarloaf/USA • Kingfield, Maine 04947 • 207-237-2000

NEWS BRIEFS

Troops quell riot in Philippines

MANILA, Philippines (AP) - About 7,000 farmers and students vowing to avenge the police killing of two student protesters marched Sunday on the palace of President Ferdinand E. Marcos, but riot troops blocked them several yards away.

"Blood for blood . . . a life for a life, that is a promise," the marchers chanted before setting fire to effigies of Marcos and Uncle Sam. They were accompanied by a jeep carrying the flag-draped coffin of 17-year-old Emmanuel Lazo, a student killed last Monday when police fired on rock-throwing demonstrators at a city intersection. Another student, Danilo Valcos, 18, who was shot in the head at the demonstration, died of his wounds Saturday. Sunday's protest was the first major march through the capitol since Marcos signed into law Tuesday a measure banning marches in main streets.

France explodes nuclear device

AUKLAND, New Zealand (AP) - France exploded an underground nuclear device Sunday in the South Pacific that was three times more powerful than one detonated last week, the New Zealand government said.

The tug Greenpeace, flagship of the Greenpeace ecology movement which had been protesting France's nuclear tests, chugged Sunday into Auckland Harbor after mechanical troubles forced it to return from French Polynesia.

Acting Prime Minister Geoffrey Palmer said he was told by seismologists that the latest explosion had an approximate yield of 15 kilotons, three times greater than Thursday's test, which France had conducted with unusual publicity.

Soviets permitted role in peace talks

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) - Israel will agree to Soviet participation in Middle East Peace talks if the Kremlin permits Soviet Jews to emigrate, an official close to Prime Minister Shimon Peres said Sunday.

Peres, during a teleconference Sunday with American Zionist leaders, said he would consider Soviet approval of an airlift of Soviet Jews to Israel a "major change" of policy.

He also confirmed he had talked to Soviet Foreign Minister Eduard Shevardnadze last week about the possibility of such an airlift, and said French President Francois Mitterand had offered to provide the transportation. Peres and Shevardnadze were in New York for the United Nations 40th anniversary celebration.

Robbers steal museum paintings

PARIS (AP) - At least five men brandishing revolvers invaded a museum Sunday, forced guards and visitors to lie on the floor and in five minutes stripped the walls of nine paintings, including a priceless Monet that inspired the name for the impressionist movement. Curator Yves Brayer of the Marmottan museum called it "the theft of the century."

Four other impressionist paintings by Claude Monet and two by Pierre August Renoir were among the stolen works that Brayer valued at a total of 100 million francs, about $12.5 million. He said Monet's "Impression Soleil Levant," or "Impression Sunrise," "has no price" because of its historic value.

Monet's "Impression Soleil Levant," a painting of the port at Le Havre done in 1872, inspired the name for the late 19th century French school of painting which attempted to capture transitory images and mood, mostly in nature and often using light and reflection. "I don't understand how you can steal something so famous,

Future bright for Reagan's tax plan

WASHINGTON (AP) - Rep. Dan Rostenkowski, whose House Ways and Means Committee has been consistently watering down President Reagan's tax-overhaul plan, said Sunday he remains confident the final bill will come close to what the president recommended. As the committee continued a weekend of work on the measure, Rostenkowski told a news conference "I think I can get a bill this year," an assessment somewhat less optimistic than those he made earlier.

Lighter causes man's death

HUNTINGTON, Ind. (AP) - The explosion of a common butane lighter caused the death of a wealthy local industrialist while he was lighting a cigarette, the Huntington County coroner said Sunday.

William Schacht II, president and chairman of a local rubber firm which went out of business last week, died Friday from burns and asphyxiation from heat, said Coroner Greg Sprinkle.

Affordable Access

COMPUTER & MONITOR

Our line of reconditioned Apple II's come complete, ready to run. They even include a free replacement 30 day warranty!

CALL FOR SPECIAL STUDENT PACKAGES

- VAX Terminals includes phone modem
- Word Processing includes heavy duty printer
- Smart Package the best of both plus data base and spreadsheet

Our Lowest Prices Ever! software • accessories

For a complete listing of products CALL FOR OUR LATEST CATALOG

Toll Free Orderline:

1-800-821-3221

Call For Questions:

1-801-752-7631

CALL OUR BULLETIN BOARD
801-752-7632
For Latest Products and Information
EVENINGS & WEEKENDS

SUN DATA
150 E. 400 N. P.O. Box 4059
Logan, Utah 84321

Mideast leaders work toward peace

AMMAN, Jordan (AP) - PLO chairman Yasser Arafat and King Hussein will discuss their strained alliance and the future of Mideast peace efforts at a meeting scheduled in Amman on Monday. Hussein has said he is unhappy with the alliance and is "reassessing the entire situation" following a service of military actions and diplomatic failures that have set back the joint peace drive Hussein and Arafat launched in February.

In Egypt, a government source said Sunday that Arafat will meet with President Hosni Mubarak in Cairo this week, probably on Tuesday. The source, who spoke on condition he not be identified, said the two also would discuss possible peace initiatives. There have been reports in Cairo that Egypt and Jordan were considering an alternative to the Palestine Liberation Organization in the peace process.

Hanna Siniora, a Jerusalem newspaper editor, is one of several Palestinians who have been mentioned as possible participants in a Palestinian delegation to peace talks. He said he believed Jordan the PLO would patch up their differences.

Hussein said last week that the quest for peace had been set back by the killing of three Israeli tourists in Cyprus last month, Israel's retaliatory air raid on PLO headquarters in Tunis on Oct. 1, the Palestinian hijacking of an Italian cruise liner Oct. 7 and the collapse of planned talks involving Britain's foreign secretary and senior PLO officials. Prime Minister Shimon Peres has called Hussein's reassessment "an interesting development," and appeared to offer the king an incentive to loosen his links with the PLO. Hussein wants an international conference on Mideast peace and Peres told a newspaper on Friday: "If it is possible to oust the PLO from the picture then one should be a little more relaxed about the international framework."

Israel will not talk with the PLO. It seeks direct talks with Hussein or with a joint delegation of Jordanians and Palestinians not belonging to the PLO.

UNI-SEX

(yoo-ni-seks) n. The elimination of gender distinctions, as in dress. -adj. Not distinguishable on the basis of gender: unisex hair styles.

We're professionals at the Hair Hut and we'll give you the type of hair design that suits you. Appointments aren't a problem at the Hair Hut, we're open 6 days a week and evenings too.

Give us a call for a great unisex hair design.
827-6725

— Easy to get to - across the river from Old Town
— Bring this ad in and get $5 OFF any perm and $2.00 OFF any haircut during the week of Oct. 28, 1985.

Maine

by Kevin Dietrich
Staff Writer

Coach Buddy Teevens rest easier. Quarterback Wilder can rest easier. The entire University of Maine football team can rest. That's how convincing

Tailback Doug DeLoe endzone for one of

Cardinals but Royals as KC wins

KANSAS CITY (AP) - Kansas City Royals, behind the five-hit pitcher Bret Saberhagen, won one of baseball's most dramatic comebacks Sunday night, won their first World Series championship, defeating the St. Louis Cardinals 11-0 in the decisive seventh game.

The Cardinals, who had a 3-1 lead in games along with their hitting collapsed in the final inning.

What had been billed as the greatest seventh-game matchup in more than a decade went up in flames created by the Royals' ace, winner John Tudor, who even made it through the eighth inning and wound up in the hospital for a heart attack after cutting his index finger on an electric fan in the clubhouse.

The destruction occurred in the hands of platoon outfielder Darryl Motley, who hit a home run and drove in two of Kansas City's runs in the third inning, suddenly rejuvenated Brett, who had four hits.

The Royals put the

Sports

Maine's defense halts UConn 28-3

by Kevin Dietrich
Staff Writer

Coach Buddy Teevens can rest easier. Quarterback Bobby Wilder can rest easier. In fact, the entire University of Maine football team can rest easier. That's how convincing Saturday's 28-3 victory over the University of Connecticut was.

If nothing else, the win should help alleviate some of the pressure that had been building as a result of Maine's problems with Yankee Conference opponents.

The victory before a homecoming crowd of 7,300 at Alumni Field evens the Black Bears' season record at 4-4. And more importantly, gives Maine its first YC triumph. UConn falls to 0-2 in YC play and 3-3 overall.

Tailback Doug Dorsey led the attack for Maine gaining 102 yards on 28 carries. He also had three touchdowns.

The Black Bears' defense was just as instrumental in the win. Maine harassed UConn quarterback Peter Lane to the tune of seven sacks and three interceptions.

"It was a total team effort," said Teevens. "The kids played with a lot of fire."

Maine drew first blood less than six minutes into the game as Dorsey plunged over from 1 yard out for his ninth touchdown of the season.

On the ensuing possession the Black Bears' defense stopped UConn cold. Maine took over on the Husky 41-yard line following a 32-yard punt by UConn's Jim Carriere.

Eight plays later Dorsey recorded his second tally of the afternoon with a 6-yard TD run. Pete Borjestedt hit the PAT and it was 14-0.

The Huskies were never able to get their game plan in gear. Mental mistakes early in the game contributed to their downfall and kept them in the hole.

"The win is a credit to the Maine players and coaches," dejected Husky coach Tom Jackson said. "They played hard and we didn't."

The Black Bears' defense was led by linebackers Mark Coutts and Jamie Keefe, who totaled 14 tackles between them.

"Keefe and Coutts did a fine job," said Teevens.

Maine's defensive domination of the game was revealed in the statistics. UConn running back Bill Mofsowitz, who was coming off a 126-yard effort against Holy Cross last weekend, managed only 5-yards rushing.

Compared to the rest of his team, though, Mofsowitz had a fine game. The Huskies' running attack netted a grand total of 2 yards for the day.

UConn's only points came as a result of a 37-yard Mark Carter field goal with less than two minutes left in the first half. The Huskies never threatened from that point on.

Dorsey scored his third and final touchdown of the afternoon when he blasted over from 2 yards out at the 8:26 mark of the third period. The scamper capped off a 65-yard, seven-play drive.

On the day Maine gained 207 yards on the ground and an additional 101 through the air.

Tailback Doug Dorsey crashes into the endzone for one of his three touchdowns.

Dorsey rushed for 102 yards in Saturday's victory over UConn. (McMahon photo)

Cardinals' tempers flare but Royals' bats aflame as KC wins World Series

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Kansas City Royals, rallying behind the five-hit pitching of Bret Saberhagen, completed one of baseball's most shocking comebacks Sunday night and won their first World Series championship, defeating the St. Louis Cardinals 11-0 in the decisive seventh game.

The Cardinals, who had seen their 3-1 lead in games vanish along with their hitting, simply collapsed in the final game.

What had been billed as the greatest seventh-game pitching matchup in more than two decades went up in smoke created by the Royals' bats.

The Cardinals' ace, 21-game winner John Tudor, couldn't even make it through the third inning and wound up in a Kansas City hospital for stitches after cutting his index finger on an electric fan in the clubhouse.

The destruction occurred at the hands of platoon outfielder Darryl Motley, who hit a two-run homer and drove in three runs; Steve Balboni, who drove in two of Kansas City's three runs in the third inning; and the suddenly rejuvenated George Brett, who had four hits.

The Royals put the game away with six runs in the fifth inning, during which both pitcher Joaquin Andujar and Manager Whitey Herzog were ejected by home plate umpire Don Denkinger. Herzog had argued a critical Denkinger call at first base that fueled the Royals' winning, ninth-inning rally in Game 6, and consecutive ball calls on inside pitches to Royals' catcher Jim Sundberg brought all the frustration erupting to the surface.

While the Royals completed a comeback unprecedented in the game — recovering not only from a 1-3 deficit in the American League playoffs, but from 0-2 and 1-3 disadvantages in the Series — the Cardinals faded into offensive oblivion.

After leading the National League with a .264 team average during the season, the Cardinals hit just .185 in the World Series and scored a total of 13 runs.

Part of the Cardinals' offensive woes probably could be traced to the absence of injured leadoff hitter Vince Coleman, but the lack of St. Louis hitting also had to be a tribute to the young, well-schooled pitching staff of the Royals.

BC experience the difference in 2-0 win over Maine hockey

by Rick Lawes
Staff Writer

Goalie Scott Gordon stopped 16 shots and Chris Stapleton's goal midway through the first period stood up the rest of the way as the Boston College Eagles defeated the University of Maine hockey team 2-0 Saturday night before an Alford Arena record Homecoming crowd of 4,150.

Scott Harlow added an empty-net goal with three seconds remaining to give the Eagles the Hockey East victory.

The Eagles came into Alford flying high, ranked No. 1 in the nation in both pre-season polls. But the Black Bears gave them all they could handle in a tight, defensive struggle in the season opener for both clubs.

"That was a great college hockey game," Maine head coach Shawn Walsh said after the game. "If you had told me it was going to be 1-0 with 10 minutes left I would have taken it."

The game appeared to be a mismatch from the start, with the Eagles having lost only one standout to graduation, while Maine played eight freshmen. But the Bears held their own despite the inexperience.

"Tonight you saw the difference between 20- and 22-year-olds, and 17- and 19-year-olds," Walsh said. "One-on-one strength. That was the difference."

BC head coach Len Ceglarski said the Bears' talent didn't surprise him.

(see HOCKEY page 7)

Maine goalie Jean Lacoste watches BC shot go by in Saturday's 2-0 loss to the Eagles. (Dane photo)

UMO soccer adds NU, Hartford to win column

by Mike Collins
Staff Writer

It was a fruitful weekend for the UMO soccer team as the Black Bears captured a pair of home contests, highlighted by Sunday's 1-0 overtime victory over the University of Hartford.

In Friday's game, the Black Bears, led by forward Torin Dudley's two goals and two assists, trounced Northeastern University 6-0.

The victory improved the Black Bears' record to 9-5. NU is now 4-6-1. Hartford drops to 5-11.

Ben Spike ended Sunday's battle with the winning goal approximately seven minutes into the overtime period.

Ryen Munro received the ball, turned and passed it to Dudley, who held on to it to draw the defender in towards him. That accomplished, Dudley kicked it across to midfielder John Tierney.

Tierney took a shot on goaltender Morrow Dilpito. The shot was deflected off the leg of a Hartford defender, and Ben Spike was there to pick up the deflection and knock it home.

UMO defender Bob Hammann said, "Hartford gave us a little trouble, but things went our way and we ended up on top. Their team on a whole played hard, and they had a lot of skill and talent. But we played harder."

Midfielder Ron Robillard kicks the ball up the sideline in earlier action. UMO defeated NU 6-0 and Hartford 1-0. (Valenti photo)

The UMO defense kept Hartford out of goalie Jeff Spring's face all day. They shut down Hartford's strong leading scorers Walt Meraki and Mike Gobar.

"The defense did a really good job, and worked hard protecting me," said Spring. "There was a lot of tension and energy when we went into overtime, and the team handled it well."

The Black Bears went on a rampage Friday against NU, putting on a goal-scoring clinic. UMO had a total of 30 shots on goal and completely dominated the match.

Forward Jay Hedlund produced the icebreaker at 5:57 in the first half. His second came at 8:23. Both goals were assisted by Dudley, who later scored the third goal of the half at 43:44.

In the second period lightning struck once again, as the Black Bears added three more goals to their score. The first coming at 24:47 by Peter Bouchard, assisted by junior back Jeff Reinholz. Dudley struck again at 33:33, and John Sweeney, assisted by Bouchard, got the clincher at 35:48.

Black Bears' goalie Jeff Spring had a relaxing day not even fielding a single shot.

Sophomore midfielder Scott Atherley said, "It's nice to be back on the winning track. We played hard this weekend and earned two hard-fought victories."

The Black Bears next match is Wednesday at home against Colby.

UMO field hockey drops 2-1 game to Bucknell

by Chuck Morris
Staff Writer

The shot went into the goal and the UMO field hockey team appeared to have tied Bucknell University 2-2 with less than a minute to play. But the official nullified the score due to a "third party obstruction." Hence, the visiting Bucknell squad defeated the Black Bears 2-1 Sunday at Lengyel Field.

Orono High School Coaching Positions

Jr. High Cheerleading Advisor
Freshman Cheerleading Advisor
Varsity Cheerleading Advisor
Apply to: Katie Donovan, Athletic Director, 866-4916

Maine fell below .500 at 9-10-1 with the loss and Bucknell improved to 3-13.

Black Bears' coach Jeri Waterhouse was disappointed with the outcome as her squad dominated most of the game and the entire first half. At the intermission, however, the score was 0-0 and Bucknell was fortunate to even still be in the game. The Black Bears, however, could not capitalize on numerous scoring opportunities. BU goalie Cindy Barbosa, the team's junior co-captain, thwarted Maine's chances time and time again.

With the game only a few minutes old Wendy Nadeau broke through the BU defense, but Barbosa knocked Nadeau's shot away from the cage. Charlene Martin kept the pressure on Barbosa with one-on-one situations, but UMO's freshman from East Corinth couldn't find an opening.

Bucknell finally broke the scoreless deadlock midway through the second half. Bridgette Rawlens hit a shot that bounced under UMO goalie Tina Ouellette's attempt at a kick save at the 15:55 mark. At the 18:35 mark, senior co-captain Marie O'Brien put Bucknell up 2-0 as she drilled a shot past Sue Hannigan. Hannigan had replaced Ouellette in goal.

The Black Bears seemed to have gotten on the board off of Stacey Caron's hard shot, but it was ruled a dangerous hit. Caron, with barely a minute to play in the game, was suspended for unsportsmanlike conduct.

Maine did get on the board on a penalty stroke as junior co-captain Kim Morison placed the ball in the right-corner of the cage past the diving Barbosa.

The Black Bears were awarded a penalty stroke when Kathryn Kidder broke away and had a one-on-one situation with Barbosa, but the goalie interfered with the Augusta native when they collided.

A couple of times the Black Bears almost tied the score, but Barbosa saved it for Bucknell. With less than five minutes to go Martin passed to a wide-open Nadeau in front of the cage, but Barbosa made the save. Then there was the goal at the end of the game that was nullified.

Co-captain Michelle Fowler said the Black Bears had trouble adapting to Bucknell's defensive strategy.

"We weren't use to the defense pulling all the way up to the 50 (yard line)," she said. "We had trouble with offsides."

Waterhouse credited Kidder, Fowler and Martin's performances, but she said, "I still don't think we played hard until after (Bucknell) scored. We're so use to being the underdog we didn't know how to handle the home-field advantage."

EDITORIAL STAFF TRAINING

Looking for three people who want to learn newspaper production and editing through sports. Many positions available next semester. Contact sport's editor Jon Rummler 581-1268.

Positions Available

Ass't Manager
Ass't Treasurer
Supervisory Committee
Tellers

UMO STUDENT FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

We will train you. Get real experience and add to your resume.

apply at the Credit Union,
Third Floor Memorial Union

Bears' asse Maine h

JON RUMMLER

Shawn Walsh was just how good his Maine hockey team Boston College, the ranked team, obliged.

The Eagles' superman strength would interfere in this 2-0 Saturday night before Alford Arena crowd year coach who discovered that his Bears could play, likes of a BC.

"We saw the em young defense over said after the game great college hockey can you say when a the slot is the winn

"I was very imple way our team played to be a good hocke

The Black Bears' with goaltender J would stifle one of most potent offenses ning 60 plus scorers first period goal. BC was a Bob Sweeney three seconds left.

"The defense did job in protecting said. "They didn't g shots on me."

Lacoste turned asi the evening and Walsh, bolsters an goalie duo. Al Lor cond, but a hamstrin him off the ice Frie played very solid."

"He was very r confident.

"It means we ha goalies. And we ha league."

Taking in the ga other net, BC goalie whose own defense al shots to reach him, ferent Maine team.

"Oh yeah," h when fielding a ques was any better this can see they have a b They weren't tha tonight. They play together."

While defensive Weinrich, Jack Cap Smith and Shawn A the BC offense oc Eagles defense provi the same, thwartin Bears' offensive line

"They surprise defense," Maine lef McHugh said. "The really well and cove ice.

"Everybody had a portunities. We just it in the net."

Now, Maine has to next weekend's con theastern and Bosto And just 15 minut game, Walsh knew week's practices w Plenty of on-ice te with the offense.

Bears' coach assesses Maine hockey

JON RUMMLER

Shawn Walsh wanted to know just how good his University of Maine hockey team was. And Boston College, the nation's No. 1 ranked team, obliged.

The Eagles' superior man-to-man strength would be the difference in this 2-0 BC victory Saturday night before a capacity Alford Arena crowd. But second year coach unsurprisingly discovered that his young Black Bears could play, even with the likes of a BC.

"We saw the emergence of a young defense overnight," Walsh said after the game. "This was a great college hockey game. What can you say when a deflection in the slot is the winning goal."

"I was very impressed with the way our team played. We're going to be a good hockey team."

The Black Bears' defense, along with goaltender Jean Lacoste, would stifle one of the nation's most potent offenses — four returning 60 plus scorers — to only one first period goal. BC's second goal was a Bob Sweeney score with three seconds left.

"The defense did an excellent job in protecting me," Lacoste said. "They didn't get many clear shots on me."

Lacoste turned aside 35 shots on the evening and according to Walsh, bolsters an extremely solid goalie duo. Al Loring is the second, but a hamstring injury kept him off the ice Friday. "Lacoste played very solid," Walsh said. "He was very relaxed and confident."

"It means we have two good goalies. And we have to in this league."

Taking in the game from the other net, BC goalie Scott Gordon, whose own defense allowed only 16 shots to reach him, also saw a different Maine team.

"Oh, yeah," he exclaimed when fielding a question if Maine was any better this season. "You can see they have a better attitude. They weren't that outplayed tonight. They played very well together."

While defensive players Eric Weinrich, Jack Capuano, Scott Smith and Shawn Anderson kept the BC offense occupied, the Eagles defense provided much of the same, thwarting the Black Bears' offensive lines.

"They surprised me on defense," Maine left wing Mike McHugh said. "They stuffed up really well and covered the open ice."

"Everybody had a couple of opportunities. We just couldn't stick it in the net."

Now, Maine has to get ready for next weekend's contests at Northeastern and Boston University. And just 15 minutes after the game, Walsh knew what this week's practices would entail. Plenty of on-ice team working with the offense.

Hockey

"They really work. This is something they did last year. If you work anything can happen. We knew what to expect coming in here. We were ready for a tough, hard game," Ceglarski said. "This is the way this league is going to be all year. You're not going to beat a team 5- or 6-1 unless they're having a real bad night."

The game started fast and hard with neither team gaining an early edge. BC outshot the Bears 11-5 in the first period, but Eagle defensemen blocked seven attempted shots.

The first real opportunity of the period came at the 15:05 mark, when Maine's Scott Smith let a big slap shot fly from the right point. Gordon kicked it out back up the slot, but Neil Johnson's 30-foot slapper was high and wide.

The Eagles then began to take charge of the game, with Stapleton scoring at 7:37 what would prove to be the game-winner.

UMO freshman defenseman Shawn Anderson. (Rummler photo)

Kevin Stevens picked up a loose puck in front of Maine goaltender Jean Lacoste when the Bears failed to clear the zone. His shot was kicked out by Lacoste to the left point, where John McLean let a hard, low slap shot go.

Stapleton was standing to the left of the goal, and the puck deflected off of his stick past Lacoste.

Lacoste ended up with 35 saves and was named the game's first star.

BC controlled the second period, outshooting Maine 17-7. The Eagles also had the two best opportunities of the period, with John McNamara's 40-foot slap shot to Lacoste's stick side ringing the post at the 6:59 mark.

Then two minutes later, Kevin Houle slid a slow centering pass in front of Lacoste that John Orr tipped toward goal. Lacoste went into the splits and pinned the puck next to the post, although the Eagles argued the puck had gone in.

The Eagles outshot Maine 9-4 over the final stanza as the physical mismatch seemed to take over. Maine could not muster a consistent attack, until Harlow's empty-net goal with three seconds left sealed the outcome.

SPORTS ABOUND

X-C women No. 1

WATERVILLE — The UMO women's cross country team was without the services of two of its top five but still overwhelmed the opposition in Saturday's State Meet at Colby College.

The Black Bears didn't run its No. 2 and 3 runners, Rose Prest and Theresa Lewis, but compiled 20 points to easily outdistance second place Colby by 20. Bates College finished third with 87, and was followed by Bowdoin College (88) and the University of Southern Maine (168).

Kathy Tracy led the Black Bears with a course record performance. She covered the 3.1 mile course in 18:25.

Sonja McLaughlin (3rd), Beth Heslam (4th), Leslie Walls (5th) and Helen Dawe (7th) rounded out UMO's scoring.

X-C men finish 4th

WATERVILLE — Mark Hatch and John Fitzgerald led Bates College to its third straight State Meet victory Saturday at Colby College.

For the second straight year, the UMO men's cross country team finished fourth.

Bates led the competition with 37 points with St. Joseph's College in second with 72. Colby (78), UMO (80), USM (111), Bowdoin (116), Maine Maritime (193) and UMPI (232) completed the scoring.

Hatch covered the 5-mile course in 26:44 to capture his first individual state title, while Fitzgerald finished second in 26:53.

Chris Williams was the first Black Bear across the line, finishing ninth in 27:58. Brian Warren (10th), Bob Cuddy (15th), Tom Scagliarini (22nd), and Tim Parritt (24th) were UMO's scorers.

UMass over BU

AMHERST, Mass. — University of Massachusetts' quarterback Dave Palazzi scampered in for a 17-yard touchdown with 6:36 remaining to lead the Minutemen to a 17-14 victory over Boston University Saturday at Alumni Stadium.

The victory improves UMass to 5-3 and 2-1 in the Yankee Conference. BU drops to 2-5 and is 1-3 in the YC.

UNH runs over NU

DURHAM, N.H. — University of New Hampshire reserve tailback replaced an injured Andre Garron and rushed for 149 yards on 30 carries to pace the Wildcats to 35-21 victory over Northeastern University Saturday at Lewis Field.

UNH is now 6-1 overall and 2-0 in YC. Independent NU is still winless in six outings.

IV CORNERS PIZZA
764 Stillwater Ave.
Old Town, ME
For free delivery
call: 827-5937
NEW-lunchtime delivery hours
11:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m.
evening delivery hours
5:00 p.m.-midnight
open 7 days a week

Stillwater Village Apartments
Now Renting For January
Rents start at $385 per month. One, two and three bedroom units available. First months rent and security include heat, hot water, stove, refrigerator, and dishwasher. Also wall to wall carpeting, and parking for up to four cars. For more information call 866-2658.

NFL UPDATE: Chicago makes it eight straight

by the associated press

You have to go back 43 years to find the last Chicago Bears' team that went 8-0.

The Bears again combined a potent offense with a swarming defense Sunday as they manhandled the Minnesota Vikings 27-9 for their best National Football League start since 1942. Chicago went on to go 11-0 that year.

Jim McMahon threw two scoring passes, Otis Wilson returned an interception 23 yards for another touchdown and Walter Payton gained 118 yards on 19 carries for the 67th 100-yard game of his career.

The Bears' victory, combined with the San Francisco 49ers' 28-14 defeat of the Los Angeles Rams, left Chicago as the NFL's only unbeaten team at the halfway mark of the season.

In other NFL games, it was Dallas 24, Atlanta 10; Philadelphia 21, Buffalo 17; Denver 30, Kansas City 10; Indianapolis 27, Green Bay 10; Houston 20, St. Louis 10; Detroit 31, Miami 21; New England 32, Tampa Bay 17; New York Jets 17, Seattle 14; and Washington 14, Cleveland 7.

In late afternoon games, Cincinnati beat Pittsburgh 26-21 and the New York Giants defeated New Orleans 21-13.

Monday night's game has San Diego at the Los Angeles Raiders.

McMahon hit Dennis McKinnon with a 33-yard scoring pass on the game's opening drive and connected on a 20-yard touchdown pass to Payton in the fourth quarter.

The Bears were leading 13-7 early in the third quarter when Minnesota's Tommy Kramer went back to pass. Richard Dent deflected the ball to Wilson, who intercepted and went down the left sideline for the clinching touchdown.

It was one of three interceptions thrown by Kramer, who also was sacked three times.

49ers 28, Rams 14

Joe Montana threw for 306 yards and three first-half touchdowns as the San Francisco 49ers snapped out of the doldrums to hand the Los Angeles Rams their first loss of the season.

The victory ended a two-game losing skid by the defending Super Bowl champion 49ers and evened their record at 4-4, still three games behind the 7-1 Rams in the NFC West.

Montana, coming off a bout with the flu, completed 22-of-30 passes and was not intercepted. He engineered drives of 79, 88, 88 and 66 yards before leaving the game late in third quarter with a minor chest injury.

Lions 31, Miami 21

Detroit fullback James Jones carried 36 times for 114 yards and scored two touchdowns, including one of Eric Hipple's three scoring passes, as Detroit upset Miami.

It was the second successive victory over a Super Bowl XIX team for the resurgent Lions, who upset San Francisco a week ago. Both the Dolphins and Lions have 5-3 records.

Dan Marino threw two touchdown passes for Miami.

Dallas 24, Falcons 10

Danny White ran for a touchdown and hit Tony Hill with a 35-yard scoring pass as Dallas rallied over Atlanta.

The Cowboys, leading the NFC East with a 6-2 record, fell behind the 1-7 Falcons 10-0, but countered with 17 second-quarter points on White's pass to Hill, Tony Dorsett's 60-yard run and a 28-yard field goal by Rafael Septien.

Jets 17, Seahawks 14

Ken O'Brien tossed a 15-yard touchdown pass to Wesley Walker with 5:11 to play as New York rallied from a 14-point deficit and ended years of frustration against Seattle.

The victory was the Jets first ever against the Seahawks in eight games and put New York, now 6-2, in sole possession of first place in the Eastern Division of the American Conference.

O'Brien started the rally when he passed 16 yards for a touchdown to Freeman McNeil, who rushed for 151 yards on 22 carries.

Eagles 21, Bills 17

Philadelphia's Ron Jaworski threw 32 yards to wide receiver Mike Quick with 1:55 left in the game to cap a three-touchdown, fourth-period rally that nipped Buffalo.

The Eagles trailed 17-0 after three quarters before driving 77 yards to their first touchdown, a 3-yard run by Jaworski. Moments later, Eagles safety Wes Hopkins intercepted a pass by quarterback Vince Ferragamo and returned it 24 yards for a touchdown that made it 17-14 with 4:40 to go.

Philadelphia's game-winning 87-yard drive started with five minutes left.

Denver 30, Chiefs 10

Randy Robbins blocked two punts to set up a pair of scores and Gerald Willhite ran for two short-yardage touchdowns to lead Denver past Kansas City.

The victory put the 6-2 Broncos a half-game ahead of the Los Angeles Raiders in the AFC West.

The Chiefs failed to pick up a first down on their first four possessions and each punt — including Robbins' blocks — led to a score as Denver built a 24-0 lead.

Patriots 32, Bucs 14

Craig James ran for two touchdowns and passed for another as New England overcame a 14-0 deficit to whip winless Tampa Bay.

James, who threw an 11-yard TD pass to Tony Collins in the second quarter, rushed for 96 yards and scored on runs of 8 and 22 yards in the fourth period.

Place-kicker Tony Franklin booted field goals of 35, 50 and 49 yards for the Patriots, who improved their record to 5-3.

Skins 14, Browns 7

John Riggins scored his 114th career touchdown to pass Lenny Moore and take over second place on the all-time list as Washington defeated Cleveland.

Riggins' 1-yard burst early in the first quarter was the first of two Washington touchdowns resulting from turnovers by Cleveland rookie quarterback Bernie Kosar, who was benched at halftime with Cleveland trailing 14-0. The other TD came on a Joe Theismann pass to Gary Clark.

Curtis Jordan's 32-yard return of a Kosar interception set up Riggins' touchdown, which left him 12 shy of Jim Brown's all-time record of 126.

Colts 37, Packers 10

Eugene Daniel intercepted three passes and Wayne Capers, making his first start, scored on a 20-yard run on pass receptions of 39 and 33 yards, leading Indianapolis to an easy victory over Green Bay.

Two of Daniel's interceptions set up first-half touchdowns by the Colts, who built a 20-10 lead at intermission and put the game out of reach on their first possession of the third quarter. Randy McMillan took a handoff from quarterback Mike Pagel, who took a return pitch and threw a 39-yarder to Capers.

Applications for Editor of The Daily Maine Campus

Are available now at 107 Lord Hall. Interviews will be held Tuesday, Nov. 19, 1985 at 12:20 p.m. in 104 Lord Hall.

This is a salaried position.

Attention Veterans

V.A. regulations require that you verify enrollment status on a periodic basis.

Accordingly, the following times and places have been arranged for your convenience starting on October 25th and ending on October 31st.

Orono Campus

Monday through Friday 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
Veterans Affairs Office, Wingate Hall

Bangor Campus

Monday through Friday 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
Student Union

the daily

vol. XCVI

A scene from this question:

UMO

by John Strange
Staff Writer

A task force three the number ing to build a UMO.

The plant won both electricity costs to the uni Cogeneration powered turbines. However, while power plants exp smokestacks, cog extra steam for "We'll be heati ly for nothing, vice president ministrative serv Aceto said the prompted the un force during the Aceto is the chair "We have to pr the price of oil said.

In July, 1985, soliciting propos that would be in cogeneration pla

The bid requ stated, "The gos project is to pro campus utility (costs are less tha the cogeneration structed."

Currently, UM from Bangor Hy burns oil at the heat for most of the university's en